

From: Daphanie M. Mullins
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/3/02 8:45am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

----- Original Message -----

From: "Dan Van Fleet" <danvanf@erinet.com>
To: <piu@doj.ca.gov>; <attorney.general@po.state.ct.us>;
<ag@oag.state.fl.us>; <consumer@ag.state.ia.us>; <GENERAL@ksag.org>;
<webmaster@ago.state.ma.us>; <attorney.general@state.mn.us>;
<uag@att.state.ut.us>; <consumer@wvnet.edu>; <timb001@attglobal.net>
Sent: Wednesday, December 19, 2001 11:01 AM
Subject: Don't Settle with Microsoft

> Hi,
> I'm from Ohio, one of the states that wimped out on the Microsoft case. I > stand and applaud you all for not stopping without a real fix. I use > OS/2,
> Linux. Of course I'm forced to use Microsoft products in many instances.
> I have noted that not only is OS/2 superior to all versions of Windows > including XP, I believe that Microsoft used unfair monopolistic tactics to > quash OS/2. (The pseudo 32 bit extensions that Word required, which broke > OS/2 in the early 90's would be one of them)
>
> I was very happy with Judge Jackson's understanding of the industry, it was > the FIRST time in history that I thought a Judge had a clue about the IT > industry. Depressingly, he let Microsoft get the best of him, (his temper > had to have been raised due to the lies MS told in his court, which were > proven to be lies in his court) and he spouted of when he shouldn't have.
>
> Anyway, Keep up the good work, stand your ground. BTW, I've also contacted
> Betty Montgomery (AG-Ohio) to express my displeasure with their actions.
>
> Dan Van Fleet
> Springfield, Ohio
> danvanf@erinet.com
>
> Standard disclaimer: My E-mail address is for communications for and > between myself and the address list of this original e-mail only. It is not > for sale, rent, trade, barter, or any other purpose. You have not right to > give, sell, trade, or otherwise transmit it, without my consent.
>

